Flora

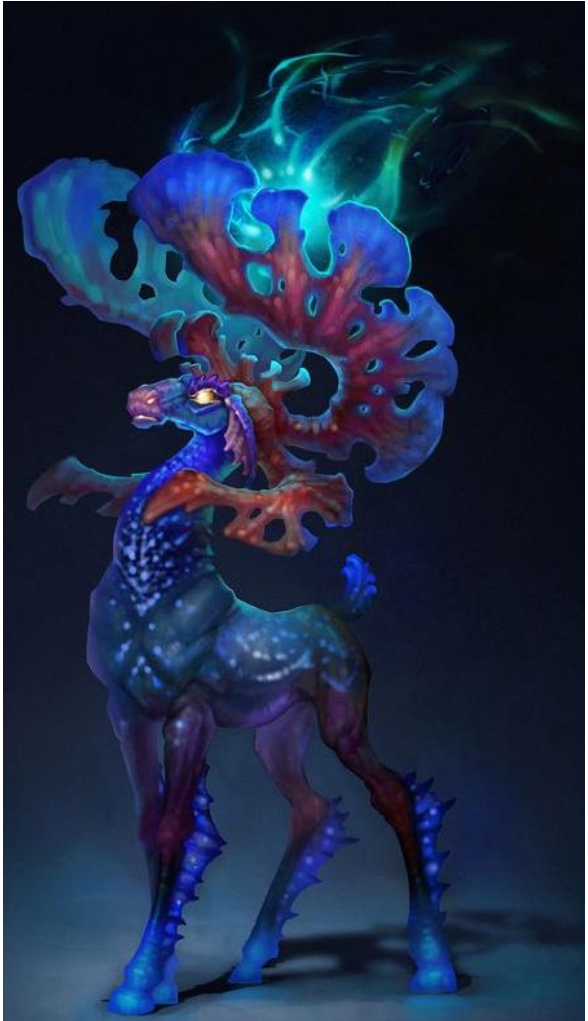

NAME	KIND	DESCRIPTION	EFFECT
Bloodweed	Herb (common)	It is found in fairly shallow saltwater on the coast of the island, growing on the sandy ocean floor.	Same as the Glacier version: Stops minor bleeds + nourishes vampires . Notably salty taste. Bleeding area will sting.
Innogella	Herb (common)	Grows in salt water , all across the coast of the island	Breathe underwater for a short duration. Commonly used in mana-based potions , but from this alternate form, potion grants extra mana boost when consumed during nighttime .
Kamenio	Fruit (common)	A tree growing between the two dormitories bears this fruit. The citrus fruit has a deep orange peel, covering a juicy but sour fruit that is red in colour.	Hiccups lasting up to two hours, but also helps the come up with creative ideas .
Neutmachus	Herb (common)	Grown in the Garden of Moon . Similar to lavender but bluer toned.	Against digestive issues . Commonly used in potions to help w all stomach related issues . Neutralizes mild negative effects of the other ingredients
Indigaes	Herb (uncommon)	Grows in the Garden of the Moon . Spiky stems with round indigo flowers at the end of them, growing in bushes.	Consuming flower will cause spike in your adrenaline level → body performs at higher capacity for up to an hour . Side effect: pupils will become massive. The risk of a panic attack is high. Consuming too much of can cause heart attack . Used in physical boosting potions .
Energieni	Mushroom (rare)	Grows in the Endless forest near the Firepit . Distinctive black colour.	Gives energy to stay up for three days - however afterwards the consumer will crash and need to sleep for an entire day . During the not-sleep effect, the consumer will twitch at random times and their thoughts are mangled . Boosts other ingredients' effects in potions and adds effect of energy boost .
Moon's fang	Plant (rare)	The flower grows in the Garden of the Moon . Can only be harvested during nighttime . It's distinctively fang shaped, emerging from the ground. Covered with silvery flowers that only bloom in the moonlight (flowers go back to buds at first sunlight).	Grants complete vision in the dark for a day . Side effects of consuming the flower is excess saliva production and the intense urge to chew .
Revantia	Herb (legendary)	Growing underwater near the MoonDrop altar (only grows in places where powerful beings have lost their lives). Incredibly difficult to come by. It only blooms during a full moon if large amounts of blood is spilled in the water , going through all stages of growth and wilting within a minute. It's important to grab it at the correct time of its growth as only at its full bloom will it be effective.	The plant will grant its consumer the ability to see spirits .

Lunire rip Lenore	Herb (legendary)	Growing in an untouched part of the Endless forest . Only a person who isn't looking for it is able to find it in the middle of the night - although there are multiple other factors, these aren't known as the plant is incredibly rare to stumble by. After the plant has been picked up it needs to be used within a few minutes , as it will crumble into dust. This plant is unique to the island.	This herb is widely discussed as its effects are questionable: consuming this innocent-looking leafy plant will cause you to permanently hallucinate a figure in the periphery of your vision . The figure whispers things into your mind, some important information and some deceitful lies . Consuming it is highly advised against, as it will start having a toll on your sanity . +10 mana
MoonDrop water	Ingredient (legendary)	Made by the high priestess. Each full moon, she performs an intricate ritual for a small batch of this mystical water on the MoonDrop altar.	The water is known for its incredible healing properties and is a highly sought medicine even by itself. Its properties can be further boosted by adding other ingredients and turning it into a potion.

Fauna

NAME	DESCRIPTION	IMAGE
Hosgao	Small creatures that can be seen throughout the island. By nature, they're timid and difficult to approach, but they may warm up to people offering them flowers filled with nectar.
Marania	Often found throughout the island. They're mischievous, not afraid to approach humans. It is easy to befriend them due to the creatures being highly food motivated. They're intelligent creatures, having some customs and ritual-like events.
Talpante	Small snake creatures with fur. They have intricate underground burrows, preferring to stay out of sight for the most part. Talpantes aren't fond of people but are more amenable to people with earth mana.

Kraixhi	Medium-sized winged creatures that nest at the east part of the island, being highly protective of their territory. It is advised to not approach these omnivores due to their aggressive and unpredictable nature. These creatures are known for their intellect due to them being capable of mimicking speech.
Vimrion	Large creatures found across the northern coastline of the island. They can't breathe underwater, but are able to hold in their breath for long amounts of time, sharing a similarity to seals. These carnivores tend to nest in underwater caves with air pockets and are rarely seen by humans.
Snug	Tiny creatures seen throughout the island aside from the Garden of the Moon due to enchantments protecting the plants. They're harmless by nature, spending their days munching on leaves of plants.

Kenqen	Creatures unique to the island. They're fickle, almost never seen by humans. These tall, majestic creatures are prideful by nature. They are more amenable to people with water mana or humanoids related to water. If tamed, you will receive an incredibly loyal and fierce companion.
Swiyana	Bird-like creatures only seen during nighttime. Although these mystical animals aren't often seen, their melancholic songs are heard during nights if a person has wandered into the endless forest. They're more amenable to people with light mana, enjoying a light similar to the soft glow of the moon. This creature is unique to the island.

Felitus	Extremely mysterious species. These creatures are intelligent and appear exceptionally rarely - so much so that there is little to no information regarding them. They are capable of communicating with humans telepathically and are able to erase minds.
Pudaculus	Tiny sea creatures that are like bunnies. They're attracted to the smell of citrus, and if you've recently consumed a citrus fruit they will enjoy some cuddles. They're found near the docs at the bottom of the seafloor, but will follow the scent to knee-deep water.
Myililies	Small and friendly animals found all around the sea surrounding the island. They've been trained somehow: if you pat the water as though it was a dog, in the blink of an eye one of them will be below your palm.
